

Billy does not have a preferred introduction. Please feel free to create one using the following information along with info from his biography.

We are delighted to have Billy Cox as our guest speaker today.
Billy is an internationally known author, speaker and success coach.

His message today is designed with you in mind, he will help you focus in on people, teamwork and results while putting learning into action.

Billy Cox has dedicated more than two decades to helping others achieve their dreams. He understands the essentials of success and he knows what it takes to get off the sidelines, Get in the Game and achieve winning results.

Please join me in welcoming Billy Cox.